In Washington, local school boards must annually develop a school budget proposal and will vote on it in public in the summer. The goal is to balance expenditures with revenues.

Revenues (Money coming in)
- State Funding
- Federal Funding
- Local Levies
- Miscellaneous Income
- Existing Fund Balance

Expenditures (Money going out)
- Salaries and Benefits
- Curriculum
- Staff Development
- Technology
- Books & Supplies
- Maintenance and Operations
- Transportation
- Special Education
- Food Service